

Economic Health	Environmental Health	Neighborhood Quality	Community Safety	Cultural, Learning, Recreation and HS Opportunities	Governance
Provides comprehensive planning strategies that focus on economic opportunities and a sustainable community	Plans, designs and maintains sustainable infrastructure	Preserves and revitalizes neighborhoods	Support and assist community and government in preparation for threats	Values diversity and fosters inclusivity so that everyone is enriched and is part of the community	Ensure compliance with legal requirements and best practices
Revitalizes, redevelops, and reinvests in the existing physical community	Preserves and enhances the natural environment	Facilitates inclusive neighborhoods and sustainable community building	Prevent crime, disorder and other emergencies and disasters	Promotes civic engagement and community stewardship through partnerships, volunteerism, resource development, and services	Provide secure, accurate, accessible information
Supports all business and industry retention, expansion and development	Practices environmentally responsible conservation and re-use of our resources	Plans and constructs quality facilities, infrastructure and natural amenities	Enforces laws and administers justice	Provides and sustains lifelong learning opportunities for all	Facilitate effective two-way communication and engagement
Maintains a sustainable diverse tax base and revenue stream	Builds regional and community partnerships in support of environmental programs	Ensures compliance with existing codes	Respond to crime, disorder and other emergencies and disasters	Develops and maintains safe and accessible built and natural facilities that support a variety of programs and activities	Provide fiscal transparency, accountability and equity
Supports the full spectrum of employment and housing opportunities		Ensures that neighborhoods have a variety of safe, quality housing options for all residents	Enable and assist in recovery for community and victims	Encourages and provides opportunities for people to achieve physical, creative, social and emotional wellness	Efficiently and effectively manage and maintain our physical, human and capital resources
				Promotes opportunities for self-sufficiency so that all people flourish	Ensure employees are available and supported so they can provide high quality services and resources