Friday, January 22, 2010
10 am – noon

Longmont Museum & Cultural Center

The Longmont Museum is recruiting volunteer DOCENTS - enthusiastic and energetic individuals - to lead educational and interactive school programs for grades PreK - 5. DOCENTS (tour guides) help school children connect with their community through museum artifacts and hand-on activities. Professional training is provided. Neither previous experience or familiarity with the Museum is required.

The Volunteer Docent Open House is a chance for you to visit the Museum, chat with the Curator of Education and current docents, explore our guided tours and programs, and eat free goodies. Drop in on the fun!
