

entrance

The expansive green of the playfields at the entrance allows for uninterrupted views through the park and to the mountains. Connections to existing and future parks, the Dry Creek Greenway, and neighborhoods link the community. The strong arcing form of the linear spine organizes the park elements and creates a vehicular and pedestrian corridor.

