

Sugar Mill Station Concept

Figure 2-4 shows the station concept developed for this site. It consists of a new alignment through this section and a passenger platform located south of the existing GWRR tracks, combined with a substantial mixed-use development that could serve as a “gateway” into Longmont from the east. The site could potentially accommodate 500 parking spaces in a combination of surface or structured parking.

Figure 2-4: Sugar Mill Station Concept

